

Summer 2025 - PAGE College Internship Application

* 1,000 words maximum for Questions 1-4 combined ****

1. Explain your reasons for applying to this particular Internship. Why do you want to work with PAGE and serve girls and young women of Appalachia?
2. Describe any background, experiences, or knowledge that could enhance your ability to contribute to the PAGE non-profit in a meaningful way.
3. Discuss any interest(s) you have in particular leadership opportunities with PAGE 2025. (Note: Feel free to express your interest in more than one role!)
 - ❖ Helping girls collect and preserve stories around Appalachian foodways and/or craft, including using audio equipment to record interviews with local makers and artisans
 - ❖ Helping PAGE girls engage in creative ways with STEAM/science and arts (E.g., in PageLabs involving ecology, biology, or natural science)
 - ❖ Helping adolescent girls connect with literature by leading small book groups
 - ❖ Helping rural high school girls create new pathways to college and/or future career goals
 - ❖ Serving as a Documentary Intern — this specific role would work closely with our Communications Specialist to document the on-the-ground experiences of our Summer Program - must have prior experience with photography, videography, or social media marketing
4. Describe any ways in which serving as a PAGE Intern might be of relevance to your academic studies and/or post-graduation goals.
5. Logistics: What college or university do you currently attend? Does your school (or program) provide any summer internship financial support that you could be eligible for in Summer '25? If you were chosen as a PAGE intern, would you need housing on UNCA's campus or would you live "at home" and commute?
6. Attach a copy of your current resume that includes the email/phone contact information for two references.

Application deadline: January 31, 2025

(This is a rolling deadline — we will consider applications as soon as they come in and may make offers before 1/31/25)

Candidates should email applications to: Programs Director, Maia Surdam: maia.surdam@pageprograms.com OR submit an application via handshake if relevant for your college/university.
